Thought for the day

It has sometimes been remarked, in lighter vein, that none of us gets out of here alive. Death is part of the human condition and we are aware of death and feel the threat of ultimate absurdity. How shall we confront it? Denial—often lived in frenetic distraction—is no help. Christian faith, in contrast with all other faiths, has a distinctive claim: in Jesus’ death, God reached out to us in tender and vulnerable love, becoming our companion on the way. Both John 12 and Hebrews 5 affirm that. It is astonishing to the point of being almost incredible.

Prayer

Great and loving God, we are surrounded by mystery—the mystery of ourselves, of death, of creation, of you. You are our companion on the way and we place our hands confidently in your outstretched hand .

Please return Mass leaflets and yellow notices (if not taking home) to back of Church—Thank you.

Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. The symbolic washing of feet at this Mass recalls Jesus washing the feet of his apostles on the night before he died for us and is a reminder that we are all called to serve the Lord. We are inviting twelve parishioners to volunteer to have their feet symbolically washed at this Mass. If you would like to volunteer please give your name and contact details into the sacristy.
