Sunday Thought

PROMISES—Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil. Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop deceiving ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and broth-

World Meeting of Families — The concluding season by Fr. Alex Stenson on the 13th will treat broken and difficult marriage situations and how the Church might pastorally respond.

St. Vincent de Paul—The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will hold their usual monthly Church Gate Collection this week-end 9th/10th June.

GDPR—A new European Data Protection law, the General Data Pro tection Regulation ("GDPR"), is being introduced on 25 May 2018. This new law applies to any organisation, including our parish that manages and processes people's personal information. We are now working on ways of ensuring that what we do with your information is compliant with this new law. It is a work in progress and over the next few months we will keep you informed through the parish website and in the newsletter as policies are put in place. If you have any questions about this please do not hesitate to contact the parish office.

The Scripture Prayer Group meets every Thursday at 11.00am in the Annadale Room. Come and pray with the Gospel of the following Sunday. All welcome!
