Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary time—1st July

Sunday Thought

We have the saying, “goodness is its own reward” and that, no doubt, is true. We don’t do good to be rewarded but simply because it is good. At the same time, goodness leads to goodness and kindness inspires kindness. This can be true at the most mundane level: if I am courteous and obliging, say, as a driver, perhaps others on the road will be inspired to be obliging and courteous in their turn. It is even more true at a higher level. Generosity of spirit inspires the same in others.

Help us, Lord, to be kind and generous in our dealings with others today following the example of Jesus. Amen.

Kieran O’Mahony, OSA

Please return Mass leaflets and weekly bulletin to the back of the Church (if not taking home)
