22nd Sunday in Ordinary time - 2nd Sept

Thought for the day

As disciples, we all need a kind of personal “rule of life” and we are supported by the community of faith and its practices. But the externals of religions—the very supports we need— risk becoming merely cultural, an empty shell, if our heart is not in it. All three readings this Sunday underline the point: Pure, unspoilt religion is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it.

Prayer Heavenly Father, you know the human heart, that most devious thing of all (Sir 42:18; Jer 17:9). Help us to know ourselves. Help us to grow in integrity, rooted in purity of heart. Help to serve our neighbour in need with undivided hearts that we may come before you in heartfelt praise and thanksgiving. Amen.

This process started in April of this year and while we have made considerable progress in getting a lot of volunteers to complete the Vetting we are still missing some people. If you have yet to complete a Volunteer Vetting form please collect one as soon as possible from the Sacristy or Parish Office. Please note that Vetting is specific to each organisation.
