

A Word of Thanks—Fr.Dasan Kuttikkatt, St Josephs Church Rosmini would like to acknowledge the kindness and generosity of everyone who came for Mass in St. Joseph’s Church and so generously gave €2116 towards the people of Kerala,(his home town) India who were affected by the devastating flood and landslides in the month of August. Many people were missing, some were found safe and well including his sister. More than 400 people died and many are homeless now.

“I promise to spend it for the people who have been affected by the flood. I thank each and everyone who contributed generously for the support of the people in my home place. Sincere thanks to each one who took initiative to collect such a great amount of money for the support of the people of Kerala, India. With thanks and prayers”

Sunday Thought

Thought for the day Jesus knows, of course, that it is not our hands or our feet or our eyes which cause us to sin (cf. Mark 7:14-23). There is a certain sarcastic, even caustic wit in telling us to lop off extremities, as if it were that simple. Sometimes, humour is more effective—more disarming at any rate— than blunt exhortation (hence, dictators always fear the comedians). The point is not lost however: we need to get to the root of the matter and undergo conversion of heart, then of life and then of the whole person, limbs and all!

Prayer

Loving God, help us to continue on the path of conversion of heart and life. Help us to make those choices which will reflect our faith in you, loving, just and faithful God. Help us to see ourselves as you would wish us to be, in your own image and likeness.
