Sunday Thought

At present, the culture hesitates before the long-term commitments such as life-long marriage. Perhaps wisely! And yet, there is freedom in commitment. It is possible to walk the quay sides looking at various options for the journey. At that time, you have freedom of choice. However, if you want to get anywhere, one vessel will have to be selected. That is the freedom of choosing, choosing not to remain in the paralysis of choice. Once made, commitment opens up to another level of living and loving and being loved in return.

Prayer Creator God, you know our hearts and in your wisdom you have made us for each other, knowing that it is not good to be alone. In our committed relationships, help to find freedom and love, life and joy. Amen.

Volunteer Garda e-vetting :

It is intended to use the Volunteer Register from October onwards to validate Volunteers in their roles. This process started in April of this year and while we have made considerable progress in getting a lot of volunteers to complete the Vetting we are still missing some people. If you have yet to complete a Volunteer Vetting form please collect one as soon as possible from the Sacristy or Parish Office. Please note that Vetting is specific to each organisation. You may have already completed vetting with another organisation e.g. GAA but that Vetting cannot be transferred to this organisation.

The Church teaches that life is to be nurtured from conception to natural death. This year's Day for Life is celebrated this Sunday, 7th October 2018. The theme chosen for this year's Day for Life Sunday is Human Trafficking. Human Trafficking is a growing problem and the UN estimates that over 40 million people worldwide are in slavery.
