Thought for the day

We all know from experience that happiness can be confused with all sorts of things — enjoyment, getting my own way, pleasure etc. We also all know— in our heart of hearts— that true happiness is not something that I have for myself but something that I am with others. Rather than something I possess, it is something that I am, with my values and vision. The paradox of human life is that we attain happiness not by aiming at it for ourselves but only making other people the focus of our lives and loves. In the words of St Paul: Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (Rom 13:8)

Prayer

God of our happiness, give us the wisdom that you alone can give so that we also may be wise and come to life in abundance, according to your will.

FOR THE ATTENTION OF ALL PARISHIONERS—The Archbishop has started a 'listening' process regarding preparation for the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, Confirmation and Reconciliation and is inviting parents, teachers and the wider faith community to provide feedback on the subject, via an online survey. This consultation process is with a view to improving the way we prepare for and celebrate these sacraments especially given that for so many families the Sacraments can be a rite of passage rather than a 'joyful encounter with the Lord'. The survey opened on 4th Feb. for 3 weeks and is available at www.dublindiocese.ie/survey-on-sacraments/
