Sunday Thought

Thought for the day In the kindest perspective, the desire for retaliation represents a longing for justice and equity. For example, "an eye for an eye." Such justice is easily distorted into vengeance, hence the limiting of vengeance to precisely equal retaliation in the Old Testament. That tempering of vengeance does not really go far enough. The problem is responding in kind—the ultimate logic of which would be one person left with one eye!! Jesus goes to the heart of the matter: do not respond to violence with violence, do not engage at the level offered. Instead, turn the dynamic on its head: love your enemies and break the cycle of hatred and violence.

Prayer

Help us, compassionate God, to take to heart the teaching of Jesus that love without limit may be our rule of life.

FOR THE ATTENTION OF ALL PARISHIONERS—The Archbishop has started a 'listening' process regarding preparation for the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, Confirmation and Reconciliation and is inviting parents, teachers and the wider faith community to provide feedback on the subject, via an online survey. This consultation process is with a view to improving the way we prepare for and celebrate these sacraments especially given that for so many families the Sacraments can be a rite of passage rather than a 'joyful encounter with the Lord'. The survey opened on 4th Feb. for 3 weeks and is available at www.dublindiocese.ie/survey-on-sacraments/
