Thought for the day

Irony and sarcasm somewhat resemble each other, with some notable differences. Sarcasm, easily enough achieved, is often wounding. On the other hand, irony, using “cognitive dissonance”, prompts insight and triggers memories. There is a good example in today’s Gospel: “if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.” Will they really? By the time of writing, Jesus himself had already risen—and still conversion was as remote as ever. With all our convictions and doctrines, what is holding us back?

Prayer

God of all life, you have given us the greatest assurance of your love in raising Jesus from death. Help us to live every day from your reassuring love.

Please return Mass leaflets and yellow notices (if not taking home) to back of Church—Thank you.

INITIATIVE FOR YOUNG TEENS

Unfortunately we did not get sufficient support to run the Teenhope group for young teens this academic year (training is only held once in the year). Other parishes planning to run this initiative had been recruiting leaders for at least a year and in their cluster of parishes, so we will keep working on it and ask you to make it a prayer intention for the year.
