27th Sunday in Ordinary Time 13th October

Thought for the day

Inclusivity and inclusion are buzz words in our culture. We find the radical openness of Jesus very helpful today, as we try to see the future of the Christian project. St Paul himself has been called the “founder of universalism” (Alain Badiou). Two comments may help us reflect. Firstly, not everyone is guided by this vision—the evidence for “exclusivism” is all around us. Secondly, in the Christian vision, respect for all is grounded not only in creation (“image and likeness of God” but also in salvation (“God wants all people to be saved”). Both dimensions are important for Jesus, for Paul and for us today.

Prayer

God of mercy, your love reaches out to all without distinction. As we have experienced your compassion, may we show the same love to all

Please return Mass leaflets and yellow notices (if not taking home) to back of Church—Thank you.
