Fifth Sunday of Christmas—26th January '20

Thought for the day

The heart of Jesus' proclamation is given in today's Gospel. As is often noted, the word "repent" is not the best translation of the original Greek and it would be better to use some other expression such as "convert." It really means a new way of looking at everything, a new mind or outlook. It may of course include being sorry about the past, but the real energy is towards the future: "convert and put your trust in the Good News." We could put it like this: from what are we called to conversion is important; more important is towards what are we being called?

Prayer

Open our hearts, loving Father, that we may know both healing and hope. Touch our inmost selves and bring us the wholeness we need. Plant in our hearts the vision of your reign that we be people of hope, faith and love.

Please return Mass leaflets and yellow notices (if not taking home) to back of Church—Thank you.

Entrance :	Hymn 8	Page 8

Thank You—A very big thank you to those who so generously hosted our team of young people from NET Ministries who led the 6th class retreats during the week. It made the whole thing possible! Thank you also to those who offered accommodation that we didn't need to take up. It is a testament to the generosity of the people of the parish of Marino that we had more offers of accommodation than required. The retreat was a great success and I ask that you continue to pray for the boys and girls as the day of Confirmation approaches. Anne Dooley, Parish Catechist.

Net Ministries—The team of young people aged 18-25 who delivered the Confirmation retreats this week are frequently in Dublin and in need of accommodation. These young people are volunteers from different parts of the world and they fundraise to be part of this retreat work with youngsters all over Ireland. If any parishioner would be interested in providing them with a bed on occasion, the NET MINISTRIES IRELAND office in Ballyboffey in Donegal (tel: 074 9190606) would be delighted to hear from you.

Church Repository/Shop: The Church Repository/Shop is open every Tuesday and Thursday morning after 10.00 a.m. Mass and after 11.00 a.m. Mass on Sundays. We have a good supply of sacramental mementos for all occasions.
