THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

While it is not comfortable, to be in crisis is probably the natural state of the Christian project. Even in Jesus' day: "Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. (Luke 6:26) Likewise, quite early on, the story of the storm at sea was read as a kind of allegory, representing the (later) church undergoing trials. The natural feeling of being abandoned is captured in the raw emotion of Mark's account. Mark also tells us where to seek help: Who then is this? Like the disciples, we have no full understanding of Jesus and yet, like them, to him we turn.

PRAYER

Lord, the sea is so wide and my boat is so small. Be with me.

SUMMER DUES

Not surprisingly, due to the Pandemic, the reserves of the Dublin Diocesan Common Fund, which pays the priests of the Parish and the sick and retired priests of the Diocese, are at an all-time low. Due to lack of numbers the collections at Masses have fallen dramatically. In order to address this shortfall the Diocese is introducing a Summer Dues collection. It will be taken up in the same way as the Christmas and Easter Dues and the Parish will benefit from the tax relief scheme on this contribution. Summer Dues envelopes are presently being delivered to every home in the Parish.

We are very aware that everyone's situation has changed and very much appreciate your continued support and generosity. In order to spread the load we appeal in particular to parishioners who may not have contributed in the past to please consider supporting the 'Summer Dues'. Your continued and ongoing support is greatly appreciated.

CHURCH SHOP/REPOSITARY

The Repository/Shop is open again every Tuesday and Thursday morning after 10.00 a.m. Mass and after 11.00 a.m. Mass on Sundays. We have a good supply of sacramental mementos for boys and girls for all special occasions.

Signed Mass Cards are also available from the Parish shop as well as the Sacristy.
