THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

We may miss the shock factor in both stories today. Given the strict rules surrounding ritual purity, it was unprecedented that a woman with some kind of gynaecological complaint should actually touch a man. Conversely, Jesus touched a corpse, also strictly forbidden and entailing ritual impurity. Both acted courageously and against the established tradition for the sake of something greater.

PRAYER

Help us, Lord, to know when to reach out, when to touch and welcome the excluded. Help us to know when to set aside received practices which hinder the Gospel in our day. May this woman's example give us courage!

Mass is at 10.00am Monday to Saturday and at weekends the Vigil Mass is at 5.30pm. Mass on Sundays is at 9.15 and 11.00am.

SUMMER DUES

Not surprisingly, due to the Pandemic, the reserves of the Dublin Diocesan Common Fund, which pays the priests of the Parish and the sick and retired priests of the Diocese, are at an all-time low. Due to lack of numbers the collections at Masses have fallen dramatically. In order to address this shortfall the Diocese is introducing a Summer Dues collection. It will be taken up in the same way as the Christmas and Easter Dues and the Parish will benefit from the tax relief scheme on this contribution. Summer Dues envelopes are presently being delivered to every home in the Parish.

We are very aware that everyone's situation has changed and very much appreciate your continued support and generosity. In order to spread the load we appeal in particular to parishioners who may not have contributed in the past to please consider supporting the 'Summer Dues'. Your continued and ongoing support is greatly appreciated.

BUILDING HOPE TASK FORCE

Invitation to Parishioners: Archbishop Farrell has set up a Task Force under the title of Building Hope. The Task Force aims to stimulate engagement with the whole diocesan family and shape an inclusive approach to a pastoral strategy appropriate to our times. It is intended to support parish communities to undertake a radical renewal, looking to the future with creativity, enabling the Archdiocese of Dublin to act now, so as to give effective witness and service in the years ahead.

You are invited to take part in this consultation. There is a video, a prayer and a form on the www.dublindiocese.ie website. Please watch the video from the Archbishop and join with your family to pray and to discuss the future of the Church together. It is hoped that you might nominate one member of your family to return to the website and make a contribution by filling out the form.

The consultation form will remain online until the 18th July 2021.
