

Jesus heals Peter's mother in law....the cook!

Miracles, miracles, miracles....here is another miracle story from the Gospel of Mark, which is the one we are listening to on Sundays this year!

This is how it happened: Jesus was in the town of Capernaum, the same fishing village where last week's miracle happened – do you remember that one about Jesus healing the man who came through the roof?

Once again the news spread that he was there and many people came bringing their sick or disabled relations to be healed. This happened everywhere Jesus went.

Before that happened though, Jesus went into Peter's house to have something to eat. When he was there he heard that Peter's wife's mother was very ill in bed and that they were very worried about her. So Jesus went to her room, took her by the hand and lifted her up. Immediately her fever left her and she felt well again. And so she went to the kitchen and started making dinner for Jesus!

I wonder what she made for him? What would you cook for Jesus if he came to your house? Or how else would you spend the time with him? Talk to him now about how you would like to spend time with him!
