THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Familiarity breeds...well, sometimes blindness. We do need familiarity—we couldn't be working things out for the first time all of the time. What is regular and known can help us get on with the day or the job or the relationship. But there are times—we all have them —when sheer familiarity impedes our understanding and prevents our encounter with the new, the different and the radical.

Our case is, perhaps, the diametric opposite of that of the people of Nazareth. Our too comfortable faith familiarity with Jesus can hinder us from seeing the radical, the new, the disturbing. Sometimes a bit of de-familiarisation would be good for us!!

PRAYER

Lord, take away dull familiarity and shake us up that we may ask ourselves honestly, "Who then is this?" Amen.

SUMMER DUES

Due to the Pandemic, the reserves of the Dublin Diocesan Common Fund, are at an all-time low. In order to address this shortfall the Diocese introduced a Summer Dues collection. It is being taken up in the same way as the Christmas and Easter Dues and the Parish will benefit from the tax relief scheme on this contribution. . Summer Dues envelopes should by now have been delivered to every home in the Parish and are also available at the back of the church.

The priests of the parish are grateful for the receipt of Dues which pays the priests of the Parish and the sick and retired priests of the Diocese

We are very aware that everyone's situation has changed and very much appreciate your continued support and generosity.

BUILDING HOPE TASK FORCE

Invitation to Parishioners:

Archbishop Farrell has set up a Task Force under the title of Building Hope. The Task Force aims to stimulate engagement with the whole diocesan family and shape an inclusive approach to a pastoral strategy appropriate to our times. It is intended to support parish communities to undertake a radical renewal, looking to the future with creativity, enabling the Archdiocese of Dublin to act now, so as to give effective witness and service in the years ahead.

You are invited to take part in this consultation. There is a video, a prayer and a form on the www.dublindiocese.ie website. Please watch the video from the Archbishop and join with your family to pray and to discuss the future of the Church together. It is hoped that you might nominate one member of your family to return to the website and make a contribution by filling out the form.

The consultation form will remain online until the 18th July 2021.
