THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

We all have our own “emotional programmes for happiness.” These are part of who we are from a very young age, structured around what was happening then in our lives. To continue in these attitudes well beyond the need for them is the common human experience. At the same time, the call to be fully alive entails some kind of conversion, some kind of letting go. Commonly, something triggers this growth and we become aware of hitherto unrecognised blocks. We may even have the help of someone like Jesus to put his/her finger on the hidden hesitations.

PRAYER

God of freedom, you desire nothing more than our strongest love, coming freely from within. For freedom Christ has set us free. Help to recognise how much we are still bound and blind.

FIRST COMMUNIONS

A big congratulations to the remaining 2 groups of boys from 4th class who celebrated their First Communion on Tuesday last and to the first 2 groups of 3rd class girls who celebrated theirs on Thursday at very beautiful Masses here in our Parish Church. They had all been waiting patiently for the day of Communion to come so it was wonderful to finally get to celebrate with them. We pray that they will always remember that Jesus is quietly waiting to help and guide them through their lives. We will have 4 further Communion Masses this coming week, for the final group of 3rd class girls on Tuesday and for all 3 class groups of boys on Tuesday and Thursday. Please continue to keep these children and their families in your prayers.
