THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

At present, the culture hesitates before the long-term commitments such as life-long marriage. Perhaps wisely! And yet, there is freedom in commitment. It is possible to walk the quay sides looking at various options for the journey. At that time, you have freedom of choice. However, if you want to get anywhere, one vessel will have to be selected. That is the freedom of choosing, choosing not to remain in the paralysis of choice. Once made, commitment opens up to another level of living and loving and being loved in return.

PRAYER

Creator God, you know our hearts and in your wisdom you have made us for each other, knowing that it is not good to be alone. In our committed relationships, help us to find freedom and love, life and joy. Amen.

Mass is at 10.00am Monday to Saturday and at weekends the Vigil Mass is at 5.30pm. Mass on Sundays is at 9.15 and 11.00am.

FIRST COMMUNIONS

A big congratulations to the boys and girls of 4th class who celebrated their First Communion on Tuesday and Thursday last at very beautiful Masses here in our Parish Church. They had been waiting a very long time for the day of Communion to come so it was wonderful to finally get to celebrate with them. We pray that they will always remember that Jesus is quietly waiting to help and guide them through their lives. We will have 4 further Communion Masses this week, for 2 more groups of 4th class boys on Tuesday and then on Thursday we begin celebrating with the 3 class groups. Please continue to pray for these children and their families.
