THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Inclusivity and inclusion are buzz words in our culture. We find the radical openness of Jesus very helpful today, as we try to see the future of the Christian project. St Paul himself has been called the “founder of universalism” (Alain Badiou). Two comments may help us reflect. Firstly, not everyone is guided by this vision—the evidence for “exclusivism” is all around us. Secondly, in the Christian vision, respect for all is grounded not only in creation (“image and likeness of God” but also in salvation (“God wants all people to be saved”). Both dimensions are important for Jesus, for Paul and for us today

PRAYER

God of mercy, your love reaches out to all without distinction. As we have experienced your compassion, may we show the same love to all.

*Please return Mass leaflets and yellow notices (if not taking home) to back of Church
Thank you.*

FIRST COMMUNION

Our parish programme for First Communion will begin this week with an Information Meeting for parents on Tuesday or Wednesday evening at 7.30pm, via Zoom. All families registered should have received a link to attend the meeting - if you haven't received the link please contact the Parish Office (8332772) immediately.

The Enrolment Mass for First Communion families will be celebrated next Sunday 16th October at 12.30pm. All are welcome to join with us as we pray that this year will be a very special one for our First Communion children. Any one not yet registered for either First Communion or Confirmation needs to get in touch with us immediately as the closing date has now passed.

Maryfield College say thank you !

Maryfield College has written to thank parishioners for their ongoing support with the school's fundraising campaign for Lourdes. This campaign facilitates their students going to Lourdes as helpers as part of the Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage, which happens in September each year.

Some of their students have put together a reflection on this year's pilgrimage - you can read about it on the homepage of the parish website.
