THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The temptations of Jesus are not at all temptations to this or that sin but rather fundamental options which matter for the direction of his life. Jesus was tempted in the course of his ministry to choose other ways of being God's prophet, the Messiah or anointed one. In a less obvious way, we too can be attracted by choices which can shape the way our life unfolds. We ask ourselves, what do I live on? What's my true goal? Where is my nourishment? The human, no less than the Kingdom, is more than food and drink. Only the Word of God truly nourishes and illuminates.

PRAYER

Lord, in you we live and move and have our being and we thank you. Help us to place you and your Word at the heart of all we do and, even more, at the core of who we are.

Please return Mass leaflets and yellow notices (if not taking home) to back of Church, Thank you

Turkey/Syria Collection

Archbishop Farrell has asked that a diocesan collection be taken up in support of the people of Turkey and Syria affected by the devastating earthquakes. The Turkey/Syria Collection is taking place this weekend of the 1st Sunday of Lent and will replace the SHARE collection.

Partnership of Parishes

In his Advent Pastoral Letter “The Time is now”, Archbishop Farrell spoke of the need for parishes to work closer together. It has been decided that the three parishes of Fairview, Marino and Donnycarney should become a “Partnership of Parishes”. It’s envisaged that the 3 parishes will work together, planning and sharing resources and talents and will look at the number of weekend Masses celebrated (currently 10) and will report back to the Archdiocese in May.

A series of four Lenten Talks and Discussion by Monsignor Alex Stenson

As part of the Building Hope initiative and partnership of Parishes Monsignor Alex Stenson has very kindly agreed to give a series of four Lenten talks open to the Parishes of Fairview, Donnycarney and Marino. Beginning on Thursday 9th March and continuing on the 16th, 23rd and 30th March at 7.30 pm in the Marino Room off Marino Church. The talks will focus on the scripture readings leading up to Holy Week and Easter and on “The Action of the Mass” and how we might understand and celebrate it more fruitfully. Monsignor Stenson’s talks are always enlightening, refreshing and very enjoyable. We look forward to welcoming Parishioners from Donnycarney and Fairview.
