Third Sunday of Lent

12th March 2023

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Today we are greatly helped by the wonderful Gospel of the Woman at the Well. On the third attempt, Jesus finally gets through to her but after that there is no stopping her. As Augustine teaches, she represents us: what do I thirst for? What is the most important thing in my life? Where do I now find God? By relentless challenge and resolute honesty, we too can be led to that encounter with Jesus, which changes everything, “giving life a new horizon and a decisive direction.” May we come to believe because we have heard him ourselves and we know that he really is the saviour of the world.

PRAYER:

In the midst of the ordinary things, loving God, you call us to the deeper realities: your thirst for us and our thirst for you. Never let us be satisfied, until we come to the springs of living water, welling up for eternal life.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

St. Patrick's Day:

Next Friday 17th March is St. Patrick's Day the feast of our National Patron. The Vigil Mass will be at 5.30 p.m. on Thursday evening and at 9.15 a.m. and 11.00 a.m. on Friday. Shamrock will be blessed at all Masses.

Partnership of Parishes:

In his Advent Pastoral Letter "The Time is now", Archbishop Farrell spoke of the need for parishes to work closer together. It has been decided that the three parishes of Fairview, Marino and Donnycarney should become a "Partnership of Parishes". It's envisaged that the 3 parishes will work together, planning and sharing resources and talents and will look at the number of weekend Masses celebrated (currently 10) and will report back to the Archdiocese in May.

A series of four Lenten Talks and Discussion by Monsignor Alex Stenson:

As part of the Building Hope initiative and partnership of Parishes, Monsignor Alex Stenson has very kindly agreed to give a series of four Lenten talks open to the Parishes of Fairview, Donnycarney and Marino. Beginning on Thursday 9th March and continuing on the 16th, 23rd and 30th March at 7.30 pm in the Marino Room off Marino Church. The talks will focus on the scripture readings leading up to Holy Week and Easter and on "The Action of the Mass" and how we might understand and celebrate it more fruitfully. Monsignor Stenson's talks are always enlightening, refreshing and very enjoyable. We look forward to welcoming Parishioners from Donnycarney and Fairview.

Praying the Stations of the Cross for Lent:

The stations of the Cross will take place after the 10.00 am Mass on Friday 16th March, 23rd and Friday 31st March. The Stations or Way of the Cross are a prayerful way of reflecting on Jesus' suffering and death on the road to Calvary where he died to save us. Please join us.

Confirmation:

Warmest congratulations for our fifty-five 6th class boys who received the Sacrament of Confirmation here on Friday. Congratulations too to their families, teachers and our Parish Catechist for all the preparation that went into the journey to Confirmation Day. We will continue to pray that these newly confirmed young men will feel the Lord close to them always and will be the best of witnesses to the Christian life. Meanwhile the girls of the parish are getting ready to celebrate the Service of Light here in the church on Tuesday evening in advance of their Confirmation on Friday March 24th

Society of St Vincent de Paul will hold their usual monthly Church Gate collection this weekend 11/12 March.

Trócaire

Boxes are now available at the back of the Church and this year's appeal is for the people of Somalia who are suffering a fifth consecutive year of drought which has ravaged the country.

Calling all Artists

Our Parish Catechist is looking for any parishioner who likes to do a little bit of painting and would be happy to paint one (or more) canvas like the ones used at the Communion/Confirmation preparation Masses. The finished product doesn't need to be any way complicated - words or words with simple symbols work really well. Necessary supplies (and compliments!) provided. Perhaps there are parishioners with a little bit of time and talent who would like to do this? Contact Anne on 0860698230 if interested.
