Fifth Sunday of Lent

26th March 2023

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Thought for the day The historical Jesus was guarded in declaring his identity but by the time the Fourth Gospel was written, Christians had arrived at a rich understanding of the mystery of Jesus, the Son of God. John's Gospel puts before the believer a grand assemblage of 7 I AM sentences, rooted in the name of God in Exodus 3:14, I AM WHO I AM. I am the bread of life. (John 6:35, 48, 51); I am the light of the world (John 8:12; 9:5); I am the gate for the sheep (John 10:7, 9); I am the good shepherd (John 10:11, 14); I am the resurrection and the life (John 11:25); I am the way, and the truth, and the life (John 14:6); I am the true vine (John 15:1, 5). We are reminded that we believe first of all in a person, not in a philosophy. Anyone one of these images would take us deeply into our encounter with the Risen Lord, none more so than "I am the resurrection and the life."

PRAYER:

Jesus, present to us always, you wept at the tomb of your friend Lazarus. As we face the mystery of death, our own and that of those we love, help us to place our trust in you, the resurrection and the life. Amen.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Partnership of Parishes: In his Advent Pastoral Letter “The Time is now”, Archbishop Farrell spoke of the need for parishes to work closer together. It has been decided that the three parishes of Fairview, Marino and Donnycarney should become a “Partnership of Parishes”. It’s envisaged that the 3 parishes will work together, planning and sharing resources and talents and will look at the number of weekend Masses celebrated (currently 10) and will report back to the Archdiocese in May.

A series of four Lenten Talks and Discussion by Monsignor Alex Stenson:

As part of the Building Hope initiative and partnership of Parishes, Monsignor Alex Stenson very kindly agreed to give a series of four Lenten talks open to the Parishes of Fairview, Donnycarney and Marino. Monsignor Stenson’s fourth and final talk will take place on 30th March at 7.30 pm in the Marino Room off Marino Church. The talk will focus on the scripture readings leading up to Holy Week and Easter and on “The Action of the Mass” and how we might understand and celebrate it more fruitfully. Monsignor Stenson’s talks are always enlightening, refreshing and very enjoyable. We look forward to welcoming Parishioners from Donnycarney and Fairview.

Praying the Stations of the Cross for Lent: The stations of the Cross will take place after the 10.00 am Mass on Friday 31st March. The Stations or Way of the Cross are a prayerful way of reflecting on Jesus’ suffering and death on the road to Calvary where he died to save us. Please join us.

Calling all Artists: Our Parish Catechist is looking for any parishioner who likes to do a little bit of painting and would be happy to paint one (or more) canvas like the ones used at the Communion/Confirmation preparation Masses. The finished product doesn’t need to be any way complicated - words or words with simple symbols work really well. Necessary supplies (and compliments!) provided. Perhaps there are parishioners with a little bit of time and talent who would like to do this? Contact Anne on 086-0698230 if interested.

Trócaire: Boxes are now available at the back of the Church and this year’s appeal is for the people of Somalia who are suffering a fifth consecutive year of drought which has ravaged the country.

Confirmation: Warmest congratulations for our girls of the parish who received the Sacrament of Confirmation here on Friday. Congratulations too to their families, teachers and our Parish Catechist for all the preparation that went into the journey to Confirmation Day. We will continue to pray that these newly confirmed young women will feel the Lord close to them always and will be the best of witnesses to the Christian life.
