Third Sunday of Easter

23rd April 2023

Thought for the day

We come to Easter faith by acknowledging the hungers of the heart (“our own hope had been”), by searching the scriptures (“our hearts burning within us”), by holding on to the story of the first disciples and witness of the women, by the Eucharist (“the breaking of the bread”) and by sharing our faith (“they told their story”). Is there more? As the story starts, he stops them. Towards the end of the story, they stop him from walking out of their lives, perhaps for ever. The moment of desire leads to the moment of recognition and a life-changing encounter.

Prayer

Open our ears, O Lord, to the words of Scripture, that our hearts may burn within us. Open our hearts to share with others the faith we have received, that “we may be mutually encouraged by each other’s faith” (Rom 1:12).

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Trocaire:

You are now invited to return your Trocaire Boxes to the Church. This year's appeal was for the people of Somalia who are suffering a fifth consecutive year of drought which has ravaged the country.

Easter Dues:

The priests of the parish are grateful for the receipt of Easter dues. Easter dues envelopes may be placed in the safes at the back of the Church or handed into the sacristy.

Church Shop/Repository:

The Church Repository/Shop will be open every Tuesday and Thursday morning after 10.00 a.m. Mass and after 11.00 a.m. Mass on Sundays and has a good selection of items for all occasions.

At present we have First Holy Communion items in stock.

Please visit us and see our display.

Thank You.

Heart to Hand – Thank you:

Heart to Hand would like to convey their sincere gratitude for the kindness and generosity shown from our Parishioners. So far this year they have sent nine articulated lorries to Poland where food and humanitarian aid was distributed among hundreds of thousands of Ukrainian refugees as well as helping with the poor here in Ireland. Thanks to everyone.

They give birth to a human being." Quote from Cardinal Robert Sarah on the importance of Adoration.
