Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - 23rd July 2023

Thought for the day

Again, today we have two versions of the one parable, the original and a later church interpretation or reception. Communities of faith are always “mixed,” in that some people are fully engaged, some are half-hearted and many, perhaps most, are somewhere in between. What to do? The temptation to go for a radical, purified church has been a recurring one across history. The teaching of this parable is let things alone—it is not for us to judge. It could be (we hope!) that less committed believers may change and a welcoming, compassionate approach may enable that to happen.

Prayer

Jesus, your compassion to all inspires us today to recognise our own need of your grace. Help us work on the plank in our own eyes before we dare to recognise, much less to offer to remove, a splinter in our neighbour's eye.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Eucharistic Adoration:

Eucharistic Adoration in Clonturk House has ceased for months of July & August and will return on the 1st Sunday in September. " The most important moments in life are the hours of Prayer and Adoration. They give birth to a human being." Quote from Cardinal Robert Sarah on the importance of Adoration.

Medjugorje Prayer Group:

The Medjugorje prayer group will continue with their meetings each Thursday from 8.00 p.m. to 9.00 p.m. in the Annadale Room.
All welcome.

Summer Dues:

It has come to our attention that a number of houses in the Dublin 9 area did not receive a Summer Dues Envelope. Charlemont Estate, Calderwood Avenue, Gracepark Road and parts of Grace Park Heights, Sionhill Road, Griffith Avenue as well as Copeland Avenue & Copeland Grove in the Dublin 3 area all seem to have been missed. Other areas may also have been affected.

We would ask that those who would like to contribute and didn't get an envelope to pick one up at the back of the church or use any envelope with your name and address to make your contribution. We are extremely grateful for your support both online and by placing your donations in the safes at the back of the Church. This glitch is regrettable and we apologise for any inconvenience that this may cause.

The Summer Dues along with the commitment to the Christmas and Easter Dues contributions has enabled the Common Fund to support the Priests here and in other Parishes. Sadly, the Common Fund continues to be low and there is an need to build it up. To help with this build up the Summer Dues introduced 2 years by the Dublin Archdiocese is needed again this year.

The parish will benefit from the tax relief scheme on this contribution.

Donations can be placed in the safes at the back of the church or dropped into the Sacristy - your cooperation would be very much appreciated.

Bible Study:

Recommendation from our Parish Catechist

I attended a Scripture Summer School last week in St Patrick's College, Maynooth which I would highly recommend to parishioners! It was run by Tarsus Scripture School, a relatively new initiative by 3 Bible 'experts' - the Dean of Faculty of Theology in Maynooth University, Jessie Rogers, Fr Kieran O Mahony, an Augustinian Friar & Biblical scholar and Seán Goan, Lecturer in Biblical Theology, all excellent presenters. The Scripture School runs seasonal courses and is very accessible cost wise. You can attend their courses in-person or online or a combination of the two. Older courses of theirs can be accessed free of charge via their website tarsusscriptureschool.ie. Well worth checking out as an aide to helping with understanding the role of the Bible in our life of faith Anne.
