Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - 10th Sept 2023

Thought for the day

Our Gospel reading today has some harsh dimensions and most likely it reflects not the teaching of Jesus directly but the practices in the church for which Matthew was writing. People who refuse to acknowledge their failures are to be treated as pagans and tax collectors! But just how are pagans and tax collectors treated by Jesus and in the Gospel of Matthew? They are welcomed and forgiven! Any permanent exclusion is to be resisted on the example and teaching of Jesus himself.

Prayer

We believe your word to us that where two or three are gathered in your name you are in our midst. Help us to recognise you in all our brothers and sisters, whatever their failures or sins. Help us to recognise you in ourselves, whatever our faults.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

The Church Shop will be open every Tuesday and Thursday morning after 10.00 a.m. Mass and after 11.00 a.m. Mass

CROSSCARE

Next weekend, September 16th and 17th, Crosscare will hold its Annual Appeal for Homeless Prevention Services. This will replace the Share collection at all Masses.

Crosscare seeks your support to prevent more people from losing their homes as the housing and accommodation crisis continues. The number of people in emergency accommodation in Dublin is now well over 9,000; sadly, this includes almost 3,000 children.

As well as providing residential homeless services, Crosscare is working with hundreds of families and individuals who are at risk of losing their existing accommodation.

Please support the Crosscare collection if you can next weekend at all Masses in the Archdiocese, or you can donate online at www.crosscare.ie

The Griffith Avenue Mile is a one mile road race on Marino's Griffith Avenue being held on September 17th 2023 - you can participate in our Family Fun Run or our Chip Timed Run (open to all levels). The event is being organised by the Marion Athletics Club and the All Hallows Area Association.

We would love to see participants of all ages taking part, people can sprint, run or walk in the event, all are welcome.
