Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - 24th Sept 2023

Thought for the day

The forty-two parables in the Gospels are designed to take us up short and make us think again. Today's parable is a good example. The actions of the employer and the treatment of the workers simply would not work today as a labour relations strategy and would also not have worked in the time of Jesus. And what is the point? Really that it doesn't matter when we come to the Gospel, early, middle or late, by routes direct or circuitous, in full stride or falteringly: all that matters is that we come to the Gospel. Achievement counts for nothing; grace is everything, thanks be to God!

Prayer

The door of faith is always open and you welcome us, O God, whenever our hearts are open. We are grateful for your loving patience and generosity

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Safeguarding Sunday

This Sunday, September 24, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. This year we mark the twentieth anniversary of the establishment of the Child Safeguarding & Protection Service and I ask that you to remember in your prayers all those who have suffered abuse. A letter from Archbishop Dermot Farrell is available at the back of the church.

For your Attention:

Bags of clothes, toys and unwanted religious items should not be left in the Church Porch - most local Charity Shops will be happy to accept these items.

All prayer cards, posters, leaflets etc. must go through the Sacristy or Parish Office before being placed at the back of the Church.

Material for inclusion in the weekly bulletin should reach the parish office by 12.00 noon on Thursday morning.

On entering the Church, we would ask that you turn off or silence your phone, it is an unnecessary distraction during ceremonies and in particular at funerals – your cooperation would be much appreciated.

Africa Collection Box reinstated:

Due to the ongoing need we have reinstated the Africa Collection Box at the top of the Church beside the pulpit. All donations are greatly appreciated and will benefit greatly the poor in Africa.

Medjugorje Prayer Group:
