Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - 29th Oct 2023

Thought for the day

Jesus does not pluck his summary teaching from the air—he quotes from the Shema Yisrael, the great daily prayer of Judaism found in Deuteronomy 6. The second part about the love of neighbour is taken from Leviticus 18. This mission statement stands as a resounding appeal to us today. We are asked not just to believe that there is a God, but to love God. We are asked not just to respect our neighbour, but to love our neighbour. Love is not only the truth about human beings but also the truth about God, who is love itself.

Prayer

Great and loving God, your love for us is beyond what we can grasp with our minds and hearts. Let such great love for all awaken in us a true love of you and lead to authentic service of our neighbour.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Prayer for peace in the Holy Land:

Oh, Loving Father, we turn to You in our hour of need, and ask You to bring Your peace and understanding to this most Holy, and most troubled, of lands. Protect your faithful children, free them from discrimination and violence, and bring about an atmosphere of harmony and justice for all who dwell in these lands.

In Bethlehem, where Jesus was born. Let there be peace.

In Nazareth, where Jesus spent His youth. Let there be peace.

At the Jordan River, where Jesus allowed Himself to be baptized. Let there be peace.

In Galilee, where Jesus chose His Apostles. Let there be peace.

In Cana, where Jesus performed His first miracle. Let there be peace.

In Capernaum, where Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes. Let there be peace.

In Jerusalem, where Jesus shared the Last Supper, where He suffered and died, and where He rose triumphantly from the dead. Let there be peace.

In these, and in all the other places where our Lord lived and walked, where He taught us the way to love one another, where He cured our infirmities and forgave our sin; in all the other places made sacred by His presence and touch, bring about the just and lasting peace that we are unable to bring about through our human efforts.

Amen.
