Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - 8th Oct 2023

Thought for the day

The risk for Christians today is that we read the parable complacently, because it clearly refers to Jews and Christians in the first century. But it is not only in the past that the leadership of God's project has changed hands, so to speak. Down through history, more committed groups have challenged the established Church—they can attract by more exciting worship and by a closer living of the Gospel. The hard words of St Paul to the Gentile Christians in Rome may help to shake us up: For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you. (Rom 11:21)

Prayer

Lord of the vineyard, you call us to live the Gospel and to produce its fruits. Send your Spirit into our hearts, that we know the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. (Gal 5:22–23)

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Synod 2023

The Synod opened in Rome on Wednesday last 4th October - 'Truth does not need loud cries to reach people's hearts' – Pope Francis

The Second Synod 2023 newsletter is now available at the back of the Church.

Africa Collection Box reinstated:

Due to the ongoing need we have reinstated the Africa Collection Box at the top of the Church beside the pulpit. All donations are greatly appreciated and will benefit greatly the poor in Africa.

Medjugorje Prayer Group:

The Medjugorje prayer group meetings continue to take place on Thursday evenings at 8.00 p.m. in the Marino Room. All are welcome.

For your Attention:

Bags of clothes, toys and unwanted religious items should not be left in the Church Porch - most local Charity Shops will be happy to accept these items.

All prayer cards, posters, leaflets etc. must go through the Sacristy or Parish Office before being placed at the back of the Church.

Material for inclusion in the weekly bulletin should reach the parish office by 12.00 noon on Thursday morning.

On entering the Church, we would ask that you turn off or silence your phone, it is an unnecessary distraction during ceremonies and in particular at funerals – your co-operation would be much appreciated.

Prayer for The Sick:

Please pray for all in the parish who are seriously ill.
