Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time - 11th February 2024

Thought for the day

To us, leprosy or any serious skin condition is a medical and perhaps a cosmetic issue. In Jesus' day, by contrast, such things entailed social exclusion and sufferer became literally untouchable. Hence the shock in the Gospel: he touched him. Before congratulating ourselves for not being so "primitive," it might not be any harm to ask who are the marginalised and excluded in our own time and culture? The categories are wide: socio-economic groups, ethnicity, orientation, religion. Are there people I never encounter?

Prayer

Where charity and love prevail, there God is ever found; Brought here together by Christ's love, by love are we thus bound. No race or creed can love exclude, if honoured be God's name; our common life embraces all whose Father is the same. Taken from Where charity and love prevail

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Monsignor Stenson’s talks are always enlightening, refreshing and very enjoyable. We look forward to welcoming Parishioners from Donnycarney and Fairview.

Christmas Dues: The Priests of the parish are grateful for receipt of Christmas Dues. Christmas dues envelopes may be placed in the safes at the back of the Church or handed into the Sacristy.

Day of Prayer for Survivors of Abuse: Pope Francis has designated the 16th February the first Friday in Lent as a day of prayer for the victims of abuse in the global church. For us in the Archdiocese of Dublin this is a very poignant day, given our history of abuse as set out in the Murphy Report in 2009. This day affords us the opportunity to reach out in prayer and to show our solidarity with all the survivors and victims of abuse.
