The Holy Family

28th December '25

Thought for the day

Our Gospel today omits —understandably? — the brutal massacre of the innocents. While the story is indeed brutal, it is unfortunately not unrealistic. Its omission is a pity because the tragic side of life is underscored, in different ways, by both Matthew and Luke, in anticipation of the passion. They were not composing sweet scenes for Christmas cards! On the contrary, they were addressing the full human condition, in its mystery, its joys and its tragedies. It is precisely within the family that we encounter death, life, happiness and the sheer wonder of being at all. Today's feast invites us to look unflinchingly at the whole picture, in all its complexity.

Prayer:

God, bless us all as members of our different families. As we thank you for the gift we are to each other, we ask your guidance and grace in all we do. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

The Parish Team wishes you all the Blessings of a Happy & Peaceful New Year
