Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

21st June '26

Thought for the day

Our times have an air of instability and everyone feels the sense of upheaval and unpredictability. Fear is perfectly understandable. Something similar may be said of our lives as believers. From a “church” point of view, we wonder who will be in church in the coming years and who will preside at the Lord’s Supper. From a personal point of view, familiar faith affirmations seem no longer as tenable as they were. And yet, at the centre of the faith project stands not my condition or even my faith, but all that God did for us Jesus’ death and resurrection. As Paul exclaims who will (or can) separate us from the love of God in Christ?

Prayer

I love you, Lord, my rock, my fortress, my refuge. Help me to take hold of the hand you stretch out in Jesus.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to back of Church – Thank You.

Eucharistic Adoration: Eucharistic Adoration will continue each Monday after the 10.00 a.m. Mass.

Maryfield College – Lourdes Pilgrimage: This weekend Maryfield College will take up a Church Gate Collection in support of the sick and elderly travelling to Lourdes in September with the Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage. Donations gratefully appreciated.

Summer Dues: The Summer dues Collection has been launched, and dues envelopes have been distributed to all households – spare envelopes are available at the back of the church. Dues envelopes can be dropped into the safes at the back of the Church or handed into the Sacristy. The generosity of the people of Marino towards their priests is indispensable and very much appreciated.

Peters Pence: The annual Peter's Pence collection takes place next weekend 27/28th June. The Peter's Pence Collection provides Pope Leo with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world and will replace the usual Share (2nd) Collection.

Pathways course: Would you like to learn more about your faith? Would you like to discuss questions of belief with other adults? If so, you might consider doing the Pathways course which is being run by the archdiocese. The course runs over an academic year starting in late September, on Thursday evenings from 7.15pm - 9.15pm in St Patrick's Campus of DCU, Drumcondra.
