Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

27th September '26

Thought for the Day

In today's Gospel we find the two sons, each doing the opposite to what they declare; while Jesus tells us that tax collectors and prostitutes paid attention to John the Baptist and they changed too. There is plenty of common ground between those bible figures and our own fickle behaviour. Of all the gifts given to us by God, the freedom of choice is perhaps the greatest. We're not pre-determined beings; our choices are sacred and are literally our making, our doing and undoing. When we respond positively to God's grace we're shaping ourselves more firmly in the image and likeness of God our Creator.

Prayer

Thank you for the profound gift of free will and the freedom to choose my own path. I am grateful for the trust you place in me to make decisions, to love freely, and to learn from my journey. Guide my heart and mind so that I may use this liberty wisely, kindly, and in ways that bring light to the world.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.
